FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

BIRD DOG CAPITAL, LLC, a Nebraska
Limited Liability Company;

Plaintiff,

AMGUARD INSURANCE COMPANY, a
Pennsylvania company; and BERKSHIRE
HATHAWAY GUARD INSURANCE
COMPANIES, a Pennsylvania company;

Defendants.

8:20CV364

ORDER

A conference call was held today with counsel for the parties to discuss the progression of this case. Upon consideration of the parties' respective arguments,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The deadline for serving written discovery responses remains March 30, 2021, with the deadline for filing any motions to compel extended to May 17, 2021. In all other respects, all unexpired deadlines within the progression order are stayed pending further order of the court.

2. Over defense counsel's objection, the court hereby orders the parties to attend a settlement conference before the undersigned magistrate judge with counsel and representatives of the parties on June 28, 2021, beginning at 9:00 a.m. in the Special Proceedings Courtroom, Roman L. Hruska Federal Courthouse, 111 South 18th Plaza, Omaha, Nebraska. The parties' representatives and/or counsel shall be prepared to participate and negotiate a settlement of this case during the conference.

Note: Attorneys are permitted to bring their cell phones into the federal building only upon the presentation of their bar card. If parties or other non-attorneys wish to bring their cell phones to the conference, please alert chambers so the undersigned can authorize their clearance with the security officers.

3. Unless excused by order of the court, clients or client representatives with complete authority to negotiate and consummate a settlement shall be in attendance at the settlement conference. This requires the presence of the client or if a corporate, governmental, or other organizational entity, an authorized representative of the client. The defendant's representative must have the authority to commit the defendant to pay, in the representative's own discretion, the amount needed to settle the case; the plaintiff's representative must have the authority, in the representative's own discretion, to authorize dismissal of the case with prejudice, or to accept the amount offered and needed to settle the case. If board approval is required to authorize settlement, the attendance of at least one sitting member of the board (preferably the chairperson) authorized to settle as described above is required. Any insurance company that is a party or is contractually required to defend or to pay damages, if any, assessed within its policy limits in this case must have a fully authorized settlement representative present. Counsel are responsible for timely advising any involved non-party insurance company of the requirements of this order. If trial counsel has been fully authorized to commit the client to pay or to accept in settlement the amount last proposed by the opponent, in counsel's sole discretion, the client, client representative, or insurance company representative, as applicable, need not attend. The purpose of this requirement is to have in attendance a representative who has both the authority to exercise his or her own discretion, and the realistic freedom to exercise such discretion without negative consequences, in order to settle the case during the settlement conference without consulting someone else who is not physically present. In the event counsel for any party is aware of any circumstance which might cast doubt on a client's compliance with this paragraph, s/he shall immediately discuss the circumstance with opposing counsel to resolve it before the settlement conference, and, if such discussion does not resolve it, request a telephone conference with the court and counsel.

4. If a party fails to comply with paragraph (3) above, the settlement conference will be cancelled and costs, attorney fees, and sanctions may be imposed by the court against the non-complying party, counsel for that party, or both.

5. Prior to the settlement conference, counsel shall:

- discuss settlement with their respective clients and insurance representatives;
- exchange with opposing counsel proposals for settlement so the parameters of settlement have been explored well in advance; and
- discuss any non-negotiable items, including both monetary and nonmonetary terms.

If as a result of such discussions, counsel for any party believes that the parties' respective settlement positions are so divergent, or for any other reason, that settlement is not reasonably possible in this matter, he or she shall seek a conference with the undersigned magistrate judge and opposing counsel, by telephone or otherwise, to determine whether the settlement conference should be canceled or postponed. To avoid unnecessarily incurring travel and other expenses if the settlement conference is canceled or postponed, any request for a conference to discuss cancellation or postponement must be made on or before June 14, 2021.

6. Counsel shall submit a confidential settlement statement to the undersigned by email to zwart@ned.uscourts.gov no later than June 16, 2021, setting forth:

- the relevant positions of the parties concerning factual issues, issues of law, damages;
- the settlement negotiation history of the case, including a recitation of any specific demands and offers that have been conveyed; and
- any non-negotiable monetary or nonmonetary settlement terms, and the opposing party's position regarding such terms.

The court will review the terms set forth in the confidential settlement statements and determine whether a telephone conference will be necessary in advance of the conference, or if the parties' respective settlement positions are so divergent that a settlement is not reasonably possible in this matter. Since the undersigned magistrate judge will have no further substantive involvement in this case, this statement should describe candid and confidential interests or positions that in counsel's opinion may be preeminent in negotiating a settlement; copies should NOT be served on opposing counsel or parties.

7. Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 408, Fed. R. Evid., all statements made by the parties relating to the substance or merits of the case, whether written or oral, made for the first time during the settlement conference shall be deemed to be confidential and shall not be admissible in evidence for any reason in the trial of the case, should the case not settle. This provision does not preclude admissibility in other contexts, such as pursuing a motion for sanctions regarding the settlement conference.

Dated this 9th day of March, 2021.
